

AURORA

— Giving light to the homeless —

Want to make a difference? Now is your chance!

Aurora is a non-profit organization that exists to end homeless in our community. Our organization believes that everyone has value and needs a safe, decent and affordable place to call home. The meaning of the word, aurora, is a luminous light, and we are in great need of volunteers who want to be a “light” in someone’s life.

WHAT: Volunteer Orientation. This is a great chance for individuals and groups to learn about Aurora, the homeless issue in southwestern Indiana, and volunteer opportunities available to community members.

WHO: New & Returning Volunteers. Adults and high school-age youth are welcome.

WHEN: Friday, October 7, 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

WHERE: Central Library, Browning Room B. 200 SE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., Evansville, IN 47713

COST: FREE

Snacks and drinks will be provided at break times. If interested in attending, please RSVP by Wednesday, October 5 to Jayme Walters, at jwalters@auroraevansville.org or 812-428-3246.
